Plans New Campus

This is the proposed 20-year master plan for development of the Black Hawk College campus. The four buildings included in the 10-year planning which is now in progress are: 1) the library-classroom-administration building, lower center, 2) fine arts building, lower right, 3) student center and gymnasium, upper center, and 4) science and technology building, just left of the administration building. The three other structures show where buildings could be added when future expansion becomes necessary. North is to the right in this picture.

Costs of the new campus are set at ten million dollars and it is anticipated that State and Federal grants will pay for seventy-five percent of this figure.

A little less than half of the approximately one-hundred and five acres of land was donated and the balance was purchased by the College.

Ten acres of parking area will provide space for about twelve-hundred cars.

It is estimated that no two buildings will be more than seven minutes walking distance apart. Footbridges over a small creek across campus will add to the short time of traveling from building to building.

Hopes are that this new campus will be completed by the fall of 1968.

Boundary disputes between Moline and East Moline were settled this spring which allowed final decisions on utilities to be made.

The Black Hawk Board approved a twenty-year development plan. The projected enrollment for 1975 is between five thousand and six thousand students with full-time day student population set at three thousand. By 1985 the College expects an enrollment of seven thousand to nine thousand with five thousand full-time day students.

This continual growth has placed Black Hawk among the largest junior colleges in the state.

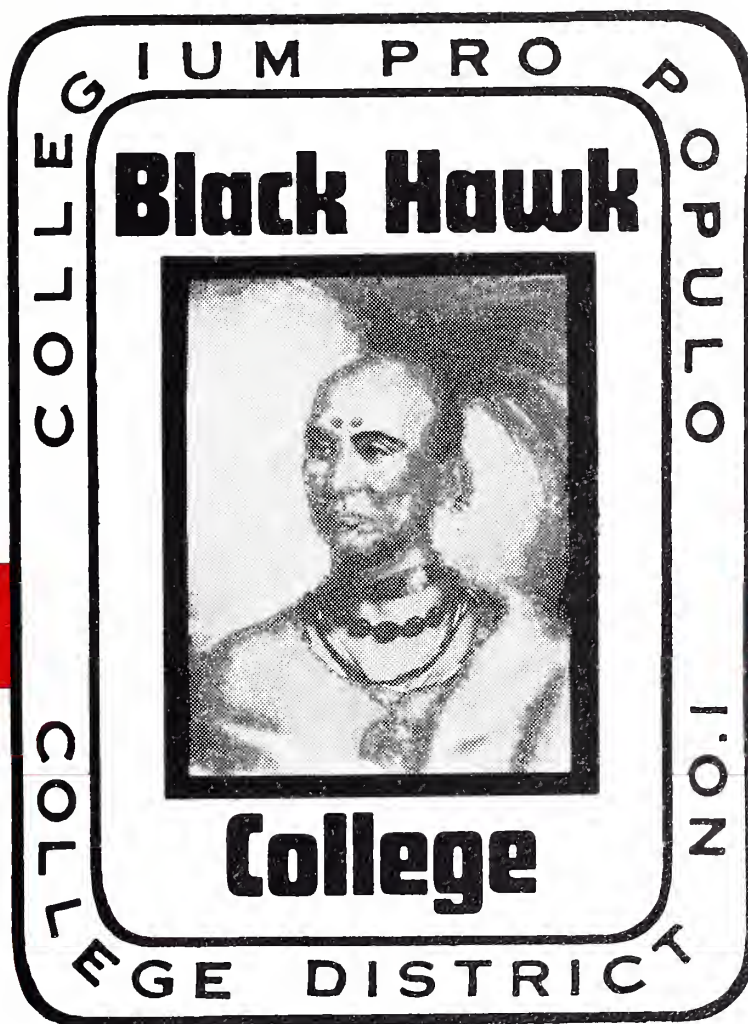

This land located north of John Deere Road in the southeast bluff area of Moline promises to be an important cultural addition to the Rock River Valley.

Dr. Metcalf Speaker At Founder's Day Event

The college faculty in their caps and gowns listen to Dr. Metcalf.

The college faculty stand while the band plays the Black Hawk School Loyalty Song.

The third annual Founder's Day Convocation was held Wednesday, October 20, 1965, at 10:00 a.m. in the college auditorium.

Richard E. Whalen, president of the college, introduced guest speaker, Dr. E. S. Metcalf, superintendent of Rock Island County schools. Dr. Metcalf brought across three problems which young people often do not see because of the "period of confusion" which they are in. The problems were the following: the gap in knowledge between the social sciences and the physical sciences, the world population explosion, and finally the questionable fact that we have a democracy in the United States.

The college instrumental ensemble and choir performed for this occasion.

NASA Gives Science Demonstration

Students Give Blood

Chuck Taylor and Diane Patsavos smile, as they prepare to give blood.

Over two hundred persons entered the processing line at the Black Hawk Bleed-In. A bloodmobile unit from Peoria handled the blood. Fifteen registered and licensed practical nurses and a doctor were on hand at all times. The clerical work and assistance to the medical crew, as well as preparation for this event, were handled by about fifty Black Hawk students. The Black Hawk students wanted to aid the Department of Defense by making this contribution as a positive gesture of support.

Student Council

Officers for the Student Council are (sitting l-r): Michael Hall, President; Alice Fultyn, Secretary-Treasurer; Steve Ferry, Vice-President. Other members of the council are (standing): Donn Johnsonn, Pam Peterson, Deanna Rohrbach, Cecelia Cornelis, Nancy Strutz, and Gordon Greer.

Besides checking on and attending the activities of other organizations, the Student Council sponsored many activities of its own.

The Thunderbird excursion boat ride in September has now become the annual opening dance. A number of "Thank Goodness It's Friday" dances were held throughout the year. Highlighted danees were "Golden Autumn," the annual Snow Swirl at the LeClaire Hotel, and "Love in Bloom" at the Holiday Inn.

The Councel also sponsored a roller skating party and the purchase of a new coke machine. They were also instrumental in helping with the Bleed-In.

Adopts Orphan

One of the most significant things the Student Council did this past year was adopt an orphan Indian boy through the Christian Children's Fund. Randall Riggs is twelve years old, is in the 6th grade, and lives in Jay, Oklahoma.

The council received a Christmas card from him and in it he says that he likes sports and helping his parents around the house. The council in return sent him a sweat-shirt and a basketball.

The Council pays for his schooling and other necessities in place of his father who has never had any training for a permanent job.

This year the Math Club was changed slightly from its previous system, making it a purely educational and non-social organization. At the bi-monthly meetings one member of the club gave a talk on an aspect of math which was of interest to him. Speakers from other schools were also welcomed.

One of the main functions of the club was to encourage each member to excel in all of his math courses.

At one time the Student National Education Association sponsored the tutoring system at Black Hawk. Some of its members still participate in it. They also sponsored a dance and invited a speaker to come to Black Hawk.

During the spring semester S.N.E.A. elected officers. Michael King, president; Patti Bufe, vice-president; Rich Russman, treasurer; and Diana Patsavos, secretary.

The officers and representatives of the Black Hawk College affiliate attended the semi-annual meetings of the W.C.T.A.B.T. at Western Illinois University last fall and in May. In March, a local charter was presented to the affiliates by a representative of the organization.

This year the affiliate's main project has been to devote time and effort to the improvement of Niabi Zoo. The work undertaken at the zoo was the reconstruction of the entrance to the Hunky Dory Coal Mine, a clean up day to prepare the grounds for the Spring opening after which a wiener roast was held, and the composition and construction of signs to be displayed on the cages of the animals.

The group sponsored a tour to the Argonne National Laboratories at Chicago in October. Of the seven centers of the installation, the group visited four: Biological and Medical research, Chemistry research, Physics department, and the proton accelerator at the laboratory.

During the spring semester, the club helped set up exhibits for the Quint-City Science Fair.

The Choir and Instrumental Ensemble made their first appearance on Founder's Day.

The Instrumental Ensemble and the Madrigal singers presented a program for the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs on October 28. The ensemble also played at Butterworth Center for the retired teachers. Members of the ensemble were in a pep band that played at the basketball games and performed in smaller groups for different occasions.

The Madrigal singers, a brass ensemble, and the recorder group created the atmosphere of the 15th Century for the Madrigal Dinner.

In January, the Winter Choral and Instrumental Concert was given. It encompassed a variety of types and forms of music.

On April 13 and 14 the choir and ensemble went on tour to Elgin Community College and Judson College in Elgin.

On April 29 and 30 two Music Concerts were given in connection with the Fine Arts Festival. One featured the choir and the other featured the instrumental ensemble. In June the choir and band combined for the Commencement exercises.

This year Black Hawk College saw the formation of a new student organization, the Art Club. The club, made up of art majors and other interested students, held a number of interesting meetings and as a highlight of its activities sponsored "The Bohemian Ball". The dance, a highly successful social function, drew students from other quad-city area colleges and helped to cement inter-college relations.

Interest in the club is growing steadily and the increased membership holds the promise of even more support next year.

little book

Don Johnson and Lynne Brady, Co-Editors of the little book, sit in the rain enjoying the fine works that it contains.

The little book is a journal of student creative writing. Published each spring, it contains some of the best writing done by Black Hawk students during the preceding year. Material in the little book varies from poetry to essays to literary criticism to short stories. Contributions are usually submitted by the writers. However, instructors often suggest that certain work submitted to them by students be sent on to the editors. New this year is a page of some of the unintentional and humorous slips which have shown up in freshman themes.

Shown throughout the year have been films such as Forbidden Games, A Touch of Honey, and La Dulee Vita. A lecture series was also presented. There were talks on Formosa, Siberia, and South Viet Nam.

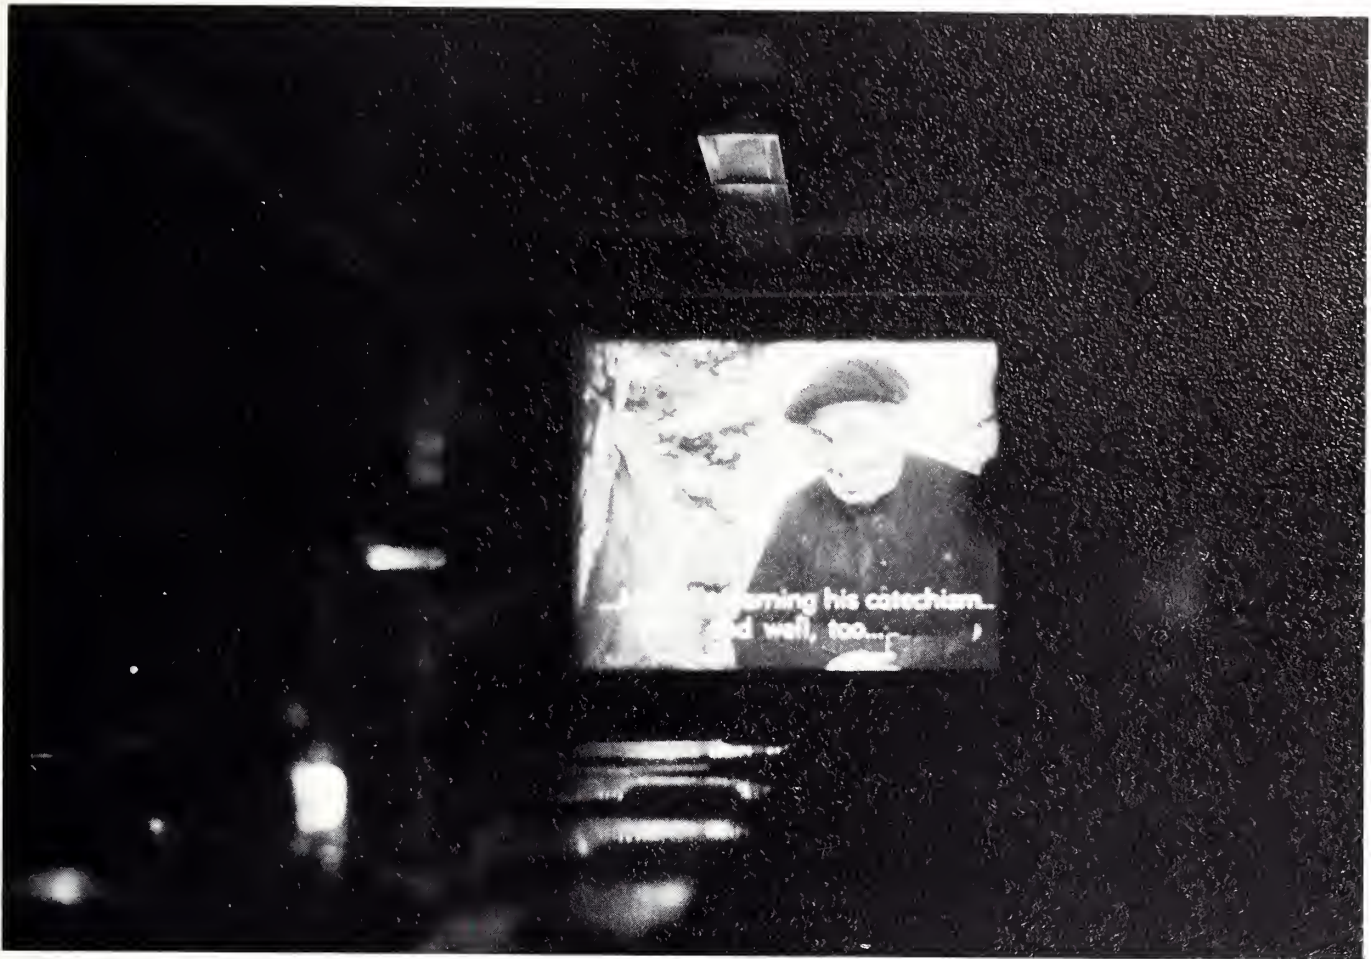

The largest activity was the Fine Arts Festival. This consisted of Concerts by both the Choir and Instrumental Ensemble, three films, the final play of the year, an art exhibit, and a debate.

Fine Arts Club Holds

This year's Madrigal Dinner was held on December 14, at the Holiday Inn, Moline. The program, presented in the old English fashion, displayed some of Black Hawk's outstanding talent. John Mendoza gave the audience a demonstration of the mysteries of magic. He was followed by the Black Hawk Chorus with the top ten Christmas carols. The Madrigal recorder players and the brass ensemble were also on hand with some old favorite instrumentals. The Black Hawk players presented A Christmas Carol, an original satire by Mike Maggid. 125 people attended the event.

Television Series

Newton Bull looks on while he is being photographed by a WOC-TV photographer.

This year, Black Hawk students volunteered to help write and present four half-hour shows on WOC TV. The basic idea of these shows was to have each show consist of three areas: film, the graphic arts and some studio production. The first program, "The College Freshman: His Problems and Solutions," was shown November 27. The second program, a program on magic, was shown January 30. The third program being on mental health, was given March 6. The final program on why Black Hawk needs a new campus was given in April.

Stage Beckons Black

The cast of "The Late Christopher Bean" is seated around the table in their livingroom scene.

This year's drama department gave a large number of students a chance to make use of their histrionic abilities both on the part of the stage crew and technicians as well as the actors.

The Late Christopher Bean, a play which described the after-death success of an artist, the mercenary world of dishonest art dealers, and how these affected a quiet family in New England was presented in October.

The second production, in March, produced a lighter, more ludicrous look at life. Three Men on a Horse was a farce about a greeting card verse writer who played the horses on paper only—as a hobby—and surprisingly always picked winners. The laughs started when he fell into the hands of three professional horse players.

The last play, presented May 12, 13, 14 was part of the Fine Arts Festival in the John Deere Auditorium.

Dramatic Emotional Impact

The Modern dance version of the poem, "Four Sides to a House," is performed by Sheila Miller and Debra as Judy Johnson reads it.

The Fine Arts Festival was a success story this year. The Festival was held April 29 to May 15, at the John Deere Administration Center. Among the activities presented were a choral and instrumental concert, a Haedrich Concert, an art speaker and his demonstrations, a panel on films, as well as some films given, and a debate event. The oral readers prepared an unusual program. A reading was given from Darkness at Noon. Also the reading, Four Sides to a House, was prepared and given as a modern dance, as it was read. The festival ended with the play Gideon by Paddy Chagefsky. This play is drawn from the Book of Judges in the Old Testament. It tells how Gideon, a thresher of wheat, is chosen by the Lord to save the people of Israel from the persecutions of the Midianites.

Phi Theta Kappa members (l-r.) seated: Linda Riordan, Cheryl Christianson, Joanne Fickewirth, and Bonnie Bohn. Standing: Thomas Vershaw, Phyllis Kennedy, Dan Peterson, Rita Anderson, and Gordon Greer.

The Phi Theta Kappa, a national junior college honor society, is represented at Black Hawk by the Eta Kappa Chapter. It is used as a means to give recognition to those students who demonstrate the ability to adapt to the demands of college life and excel in scholastic achievement. A student must be full-time, be of good moral character, have a grade average of not less than a "B," and at the time of election be within the upper ten percent of the student body to be qualified for membership.

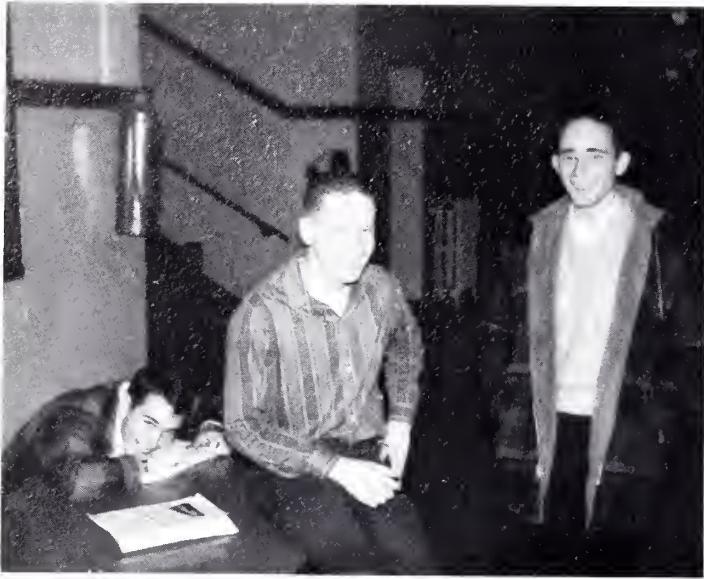

The purposes of Mu Alpha Theta are to engender a keener interest in mathematics, to develop sound scholarship in the subject, and to promote the enjoyment of mathematics. Those eligible for membership must have an overall average of "B," be currently enrolled in a math course, be a math club member, and a member of Phi Theta Kappa.

Golfers Close 8-8

The Black Hawk golf team hosted the conference meet at Short Hills Golf Course, placing fifth in the meet. The golf team was led by season medalist Rich Countryman. Other members of the team were: Tom Houldsworth, Curt Anderson, Kent Herbert, Dan Jones and Dick Neyens.

The Black Hawk Wrestling squad closed its season February 25. The wrestlers defeated two four-year schools and finished second in the Monmouth Invitational on January 15. The final tabulations were: Augustana 104 points, Black Hawk 60 points, Carthage 56 points, and Monmouth 53 points.

The highlight of the tournament for Black Hawk occurred when Bernie Rangel decisioned John Lambert. Lambert was the C.C.I. conference champion and second in the N.C.A.A. National Meet in 1965.

Bill Gipson also got a first place in his weight division.

Tired after a workout, Vince Prieto takes a rest.

Two evenly matched wrestlers struggle for an advantage.

Braves Swing Into Spring Practice.

This year's baseball team will play their toughest schedule since the school started. Coach Kienle believes that, "Black Hawk's baseball team will be one of the contenders for the Region IV tournament held at Lincoln, Illinois, in May."

Returning lettermen are: Don Lantz, Gordon Greer, Bob Gustafson, Ron Stablein, and Ron Taber.

Don Lanz and Gordon Greer loosen up on a warm day at Browning Field.

Henry Timbrook passes off to Bob Johnson at meet with Univ. of Chicago.

Bob Bray clears high jump at meet in Chicago.

BHC Runs Away With State Title

Bob comes in all by himself after winning two-mile run. Bob was an outstanding runner last year as well as this year.

This year's track team includes many of the same members that won the state championship last year. Returning lettermen are: Terry Payne, Jerry Oberhardt, Larry Barber, Bob James, Bob Johnson, Don Blaser, Gary Kinkade, Henry Timbrook, Milt Beale, and Jerry Paul.

New members this year include: John McMillan, Dennis Ellett, Jerry Brodine, Steve Ritchie, Ron Andon, and Bob Bray.

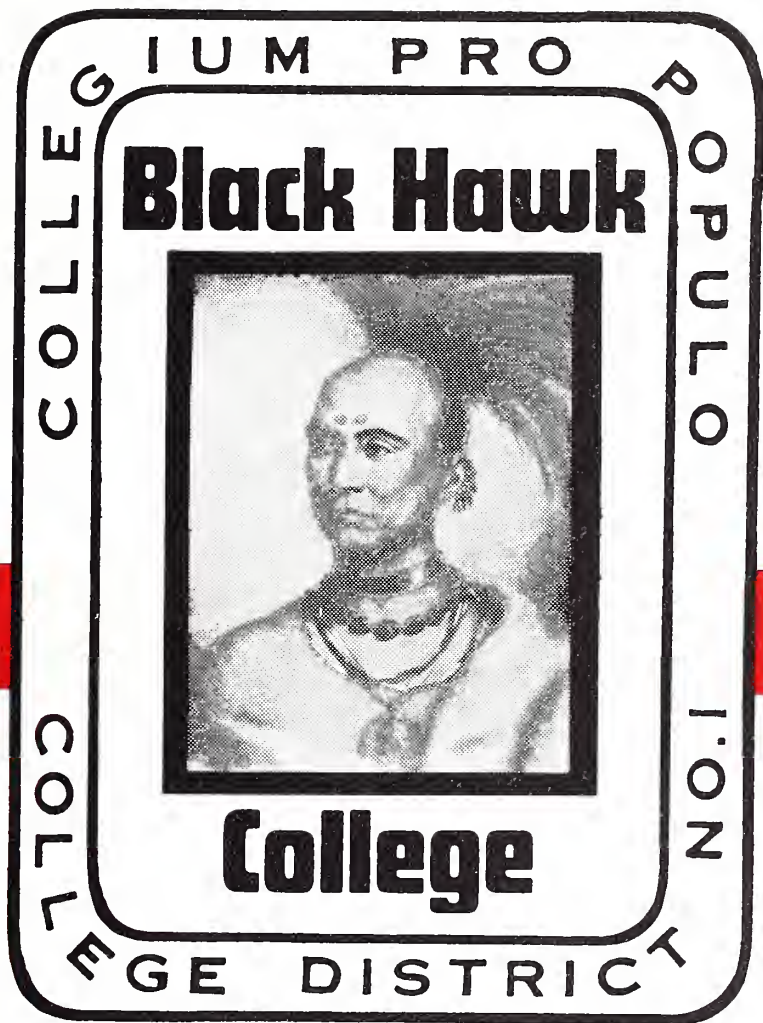

John McMillan starts on his way up. This is his first year out for track and Mr. McClimon is expecting him to fill a big spot on the track team this year.

ACADEMICS

Thank You, Mr. President

An Open Letter to President Whalen :

We, the students of Black Hawk College, wish to thank you for the many things you have done for our College since becoming its first President six years ago.

Our enrollment has increased considerably, we have been classified as a Class I junior college, we have expanded the college district, and we are now recognized as one of the largest and fastest-growing junior colleges in the State of Illinois. Most important of all, our dreams for a new campus are becoming realized. Your tireless efforts toward this goal will never be forgotten.

Men of integrity and honesty are rare. We have had such a man as our President.

For this and for all you have done for us, we speak not only for ourselves but for those who have passed through these halls in years before when we say,

Board of Education Plays Vital Role in Black Hawk's Development

The Board of Education members are the key figures in the growth of Black Hawk College. The Board is composed of seven members who develop policies for the College in accordance with the laws of the state and the educational needs and wishes of the people. Its biggest concern this past year was the formulating of plans for the College's proposed new campus. Selecting a new College president was another task for the Board.

Dean Belote came to Moline Community College in 1960 as director of Vocational, Technical, and Adult Education. Upon formation of Black Hawk College two years later, he was named Dean of the Evening College. Since 1964 he served as Academic Dean. On December 1 he became Associate Secretary to the Illinois Junior College Board.

Dr. Jensen was appointed Dean of the Evening College and Director of Admissions in December. From 1961-1962 he served as Senior Naval Advisor to the Vietnamese Naval Academy. He was an instructor at the United States Naval Academy and served six years sea duty.

Artists "Deck the Halls"

One of the highlights of the year in the Art Department was the holding of the Fine Arts Festival at the Deere and Company Administrative Center early in May. The use of these impressive facilities greatly enhanced the offerings of the departments involved. Art exhibits were seen at considerable advantage.

The Art Department staff is composed of two full-time and four part-time instructors, each of whom participated in various regional exhibits during the past year. The department has begun a collection of contemporary prints which will be available for use by students, faculty, and towns-people. Other significant advances include expansion of library reference materials in art and a considerable addition to the department slide library.

The English, Journalism, and Foreign Language Department enables the student to become more mature in his use of his own language and to be able to communicate fluently in the language of others.

Activities in which the Department was involved were the Sauk, the yearbook summary of the year's events; the Chieftain, a bi-weekly newspaper which is a training ground for future journalists; the "little book," which allows the creative students to have their poetry and prose published; the Book Fair, which places a variety of books at the disposal of the students for each purchase; and the Fine Arts Club, which sponsors many activities of its own.

Music Department Hits High Note

Students who were interested in music as a career found greatly improved curricula in the Music Department. Four new soundproof rehearsal rooms helped students perfect their individual talents. The department was divided three ways: Applied Music, Music Education with instrumental emphasis, and Music Education with vocal emphasis. New courses were added to acquaint the majors in one field with instruments of other fields.

Mr. Roger Perley took on the load of the Music Department as acting Department Head while Assistant Professor Donald Moe was on leave of absence for advanced graduate study.

The instrumental ensemble and the choir held a Winter Concert in January, a spring concert in May, and traveled to Elgin and to Joliet on a spring tour.

Speech and Drama: Keys to Communication

The curriculum of the Speech Department has been designed to help the individual student become more effective linguistically, psychologically, vocally, and physically in communicating with others. Classroom activities included the use of discussion tapes, recordings by noted readers and actors, and socio-drama in basic speech and discussion classes.

The debate program expanded as more students participated, and theatre offerings for the year consisted of three major productions. The Speech Department assumed the responsibility of producing a series of educational programs in commercial television. Oral Interpretation activities included tournament and program participation. Experimentation in Chamber Theatre and the combination of poetry reading and modern dance was done.

Test tubes topple and spill secrets of nature to science students at Black Hawk College. The involvement of the student in the development of the Physical Science Department has been in step with the overall growth of Black Hawk College.

In addition to the fundamental courses in this department, a one semester course has been designed for the liberal arts student which provides an introduction to the basic principles of chemistry or physics. There is also a chemistry course designed for student nurses who take part of their academic work at the College.

To further aid the students the facilities of the lab have been brought up to date through the purchase of new equipment.

Math Department Has Six-Day Week

The Mathematics Department has the unique distinction of being the only department which has a class offering a Saturday Lab session to the student. Computer Programming class rented a large electronic digital computer, the IBM 1401 and met on Saturdays to actually run the student's personally written programs on the computer. Because there was access to only one computer, the size of the class was limited.

Also, since "modern math" has been started in the elementary school systems, a math course teaching the new math is offered at Black Hawk. It is especially designed to meet the needs to elementary school teachers.

Engineering Provides Key to Industrial Advancement

The Engineering Department offers starting courses which provide essential knowledge for the student seeking employment, and basic knowledge for the engineering major. As well as eighteen two-hour lecture and laboratory periods within the school, the Engineering Department holds many classes outside Black Hawk College. Other classes are held at Moline High School and United Township High School where electronics equipment and other lab facilities are available. Nine field trips were taken to industrial centers around the Quad Cities for the purpose of studying the complex engineering equipment at such places as Deere and Company, International Harvester, and Rock Island Arsenal.

Biology Department Adds Equipment

The Biology Department added new equipment this year to aid in the teaching of the various biology courses and those in related fields. Several major items were among the new equipment received. Among these were a plastic laminator, a hydrovoid glove box, an analytic balance, a Labomatic Ph meter, a stereo microscope, and several standard microscopes, an incubator, refrigerators, and table models of a DNA molecule, a leaf, the brain, and a flower. This equipment has been of great help in the teaching of the biology, anatomy, microbiology, botany and zoology courses. Concepts difficult to grasp are made more vivid by seeing models or using the proper equipment to practice a process.

The aim of the Social Science department is to provide Black Hawk students with a broad and varied background in preparation for further study in the liberal arts and sciences. Students learn about man, his relationships with other men, the way he thinks, and the way in which he is governed.

Because of the increased enrollment, two new instructors have been added to the staff, thus providing students with a wider variety and number of courses.

The department provides service to the community by including in its curriculum Police Science courses which help train area law enforcement officers, both city policemen and county sheriff's deputies.

The Business Department supplemented its instruction by inviting people connected with the business world to elaborate on their specific fields. Outside speakers talked on Court Reporting, Advertising and Sales Promotion, the National Secretaries Association, and Printing.

With the increasing number of business majors the staff was enlarged to eight full-time and twelve part-time teachers. The addition of two more faculty members is anticipated.

Two scholarships were given, one by the National Secretaries Association and the other by the Rock Island Chapter of the American Business Women's Association.

A data processing program is under consideration by the Board of Education which would enlarge the occupational-oriented curricula of the department, which now includes Business Management and Secretarial Science.

The Psychology Department is making plans for more new courses: Applied Psychology and Social Psychology. The Psychology Department will initiate a two year curriculum leading to an A.A. degree in Child Care and a two year curriculum leading to an A.A. degree in Mental Health. The Psychology Department of Black Hawk and East Moline State Hospital will co-operate jointly in this program.

The Education Department has joined in Governor Kerner's efforts to provide needy elementary children with an opportunity to improve their areas of weakness through the tutoring program. Fifteen Black Hawk students worked in this program during the year. Hopefully, the program will be expanded next year so that more students will be able to obtain assistance.

Health and Physical Education Department Keeps Students Fit

The Health and Physical Education Department, besides the regular professional physical education courses, offers co-ed courses such as modern dance, social dancing, golf, archery and swimming.

The department added new equipment this year—a balance beam, a baseball pitching machine, and offset parallel bars—and attempted to stress the importance of using this equipment properly, thus helping the students to keep fit.

Health Education gives an insight into good health habits and into the prevention of infectious diseases. In the health classes, several movies and class discussions are given to point out the necessity of maintaining a healthful environment.

Along with quite a few of the other departments at Black Hawk College, the library, too, showed a marked growth. The size of the book collection has grown fifty percent, making a total of almost fifteen thousand volumes in the library. The large increase has been due mainly to a large book budget and some exceptional gift collections.

One especially valuable gift was a one hundred thirty volume set of government documents entitled War of the Rebellion: Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies.

The library also provides for student employment and scholarship work. In connection with the English Department it offers an orientation course, Library Science and Research.

Congratulations!

You've successfully achieved another goal. You're ready to begin reaching for future successes. But . . . how do you measure success? Not with a caliper or a yardstick or a stopwatch . . . not by the acre or the ounce or the cubic foot. Success is intangible . . . it is the sum of your personal goals and aspirations, sorted into positions of relative importance.

Whatever you establish as your criteria of success, you will need to exercise self discipline. Ambition alone is not enough . . . even coupled with intelligence and talent. Self discipline is essential to direct your energies and abilities into productive channels . . . to provide you with initiative and perseverance. Develop this quality . . . you will enjoy a more rewarding life, a more successful life.

"Ambition is just the desire to succeed. The world is full of ambitious failures—all desire and no discipline. Self discipline is perhaps the most important quality an intelligent person can develop in order to reach his goals."

William A. Hewitt, Chairman, Deere & Company.
